

EXERCISE:

Study the life and character of David.

chapters 1 Sam 16,17,18,19,24

chapters 2 Sam 2,5,6,7

chapters 2 Sam 11

chapters 2 Sam 15,16,17

What can you learn from David?

Read the four stories and describe how and why David becomes king?

Is anything said about David's heart or Saul's heart?

How does David gather the group of strong men who follow him?

What can you learn from the story of David and Goliath? What attitude does David have regarding God in the many field battles which follow thereafter?

What is David's attitude when he is confronted with his sin by the prophet Nathan?

What do you learn from David for your own life?

Matt 5:43-48, Col 4:12,13 Read the instructions from Jesus and Paul to the disciples and apply them to your own life.

Ask yourself four questions:

Is there a word from God for me personally in this text?

Is there a promise from the Father for my life?

Does Jesus ask me to do anything?

Decide to act upon this and ask Jesus to help you with this.
